CARD OF THANKS.

Editor Public Ledger: Please to express through your columns to the Republicans and voters of the thirty-first Senatorial District our thanks and very high appreciation for the cordial support and substantial indorsement given us, on the short notice of less than twenty hours, in the recent race for the unexpired term of Senator Poyntz. Although we were not seeking either the race, the honor or the office—simply complied with the expressed wishes of the leaders and voters of my political party—yet the received indorsement is as highly appreciated "all the same." Very truly,

S. G. HILLIS.

SARDIS.

Charley Bland has not been so well for some time.

What Ailed The Baby.

Sunday Mrs. Wesley Thomas of Ironton, while giving her three-year-old son a bath, was mystified at the child's peculiar actions and cries at times, as though nervous or affected by sudden pains. Seeking a cause, she discovered what appeared to be a very small splinter in the child's breast, just over its heart. She started to pull it out, and almost fainted as she drew forth a needle an inch and a quarter long, which had been buried almost its entire length in the baby's breast, and must have been dangerously near its heart. The needle was discolored and slightly bent, but unbroken. How or when it found lodgment in the baby's body is not known, of course, but it had evidently been there for a long time. The child has had spasms on one or two occasions, and these are now attributed to the effects of the needle in the body.

PROF. PROCTER, State Geologist, has published a letter knocking in the head several lies that have been told about him in the newspapers. He has drawn less than his salary instead of more, and nothing was paid him for the time he was in Europe. The scandal-mongers put their foot in it when they attacked him.

HOW THEY STAND ON THE ISSUE.

Result of Interviews With Democratic Politicians Regarding Instructions.

The Courier-Journal has sounded all the prominent Delegates to the Democratic Convention as to their views on sending an instructed delegation to Chicago. The answers from this section are given below:

Attorney General Hendrick of Fleming—I am opposed to instructions.

R. K. Hart of Fleming—I am against instructions.

Railroad Commissioner C. B. Poyntz of Mason—I think the Kentucky delegation should go uninstructed.

Waller Sharp of Bath—I ought to go an uninstructed delegation.

Senator-elect G. S. Wall, of the Thirty-first District—I think the delegation should go uninstructed.

Green R. Keller, Nicholas—I am against instructions unless we instruct for Carlisle.

R. D. Wilson, Lewis—I favor the sending of an uninstructed delegation.

J. M. Frazier, Mason—I am rather opposed to instructions unless we instruct for Carlisle.

Hon. Green R. Keller—"The Ninth Congressional District will for the most part favor an uninstructed delegation."

Judge A. E. Cole of Maysville—"We should send our delegation with no instructions to hamper it, picking men that can be trusted."

Ex-Senator, but now Railroad Commissioner Poyntz, who is here as a delegate from Mason county, let the cat out of the wallet last night as to how the Chairman of the Railroad Commissioners was elected at Frankfort the other day. In the first place, the ex-Senator wants it understood that the other two Commissioners were for him, but with his usual diffidence he gently pushed the honor aside. Finally it was agreed that they should cut in a book, and that the one cutting nearest the letter A in the second line of the first page should be Chairman. The contestants then thrust their daggers between the leaves of an innocent literary work. Mr. Woodson and ex-Senator Poyntz both cut U, while Mr. McChord cut E, and was declared Chairman.

Mrs. JOHN ZIMMERMAN, an estimable lady of Dayton, died yesterday morning.

CASSIUS M. TAYLOR, a farmer of Madison county, attempted suicide by shooting himself. He will probably die. Insanity was the cause.

DURING the past few nights a number of flower-plats in the Fourth and Fifth Wards have been literally destroyed by thieving miscreants. If it is not stopped, the shotgun policy will be inaugurated.

THE Parnelia Wilmore will case, which has been in court at Nicholasville for the past three years, has been decided, the jury sustaining the will. The case was appealed two years ago from the Circuit Court to the Common Pleas Court, and has created a great deal of interest, from the fact that the deceased left an estate valued at $60,000, which some of the relatives tried to prove was unevenly divided, and that she was of unsound mind. Some of the leading legal lights in the state were employed in the case.

FIRE, starting on the third floor of the building on Sixth street near Main, Louisville, occupied by Bray & Landrum, manufacturers of jeans clothing, caused a loss of $100,000. The stock was completely destroyed. It was valued at $80,000, and was insured for $60,000. The building, valued at $40,000, was the property of the J. B. Wilder estate. It was damaged about $20,000, fully covered by insurance. The cause of the fire is supposed to have been an explosion of the gas that escaped from one of the gas-irons.

THANKS for the departure from the dry-goods box style of houses. A sensible architect has drawn the plans for a residence to be built in Bellevue. The architecture is of an entirely new design in this section of the country, but the prevailing fad in the East. A circular piazza will be in front and on the East side, that is of itself a thing of beauty. Circular plate-glass windows, handsomely finished stone trimmings, with a background of pressed brick, will make a beautiful exterior appearance while the inside will be unexcelled for convenience and beauty.

DURING the past year 4,807 vessels passed through the Suez Canal, and of these only twenty-six carried the American flag.

In Crittenden county, George L. Cruce a prominent farmer had his throat badly cut by a negro with whom he had quarreled. The negro surrendered himself.

SIR AUBREY CASTLEMAN, of Kurenyolu, Ceylon, is spending a few days in Lexington. He is a Count in his own right, and is an heir to two Earldoms. He speaks sixteen languages and has been around the world four times.

"UNCLE JOHNNY" WARREN, probably the oldest white man in Western North Carolina, died near Asheville, aged 102. It is related of him that he could not be persuaded to ride on a train or go near enough to the track to see the train, although for the last ten years he has been living within four miles of a railroad. He would never eat at a table where anyone could see him. Living only a few miles from Asheville, yet his last visit was made before the war. Aside from these eccentricities he was a good and prosperous citizen.
